RIGHT OF APPEAL

The following decisions may be appealed:

- The approval of a permitted use, if it is believed the permit has been used in contravention to the Zoning Bylaw;
- The standards and conditions of either a permitted or discretionary use approval; and
- The refusal of a permitted use.

The appeal must be made to the Development Appeal Board within 30 days of the Notice of Decision, in accordance with The Planning and Development Act, 2007.

Note: The approval of an application and the issuance of a Development Permit does not absolve the applicant from obtaining other permits and approvals required according to other municipal, Provincial and Federal government legislation.
